

Fire in the Sky

Rani Arbo and Daisy Mayhem

What's a man to do?
What's a man to say?
He works his whole life through
Then just slips away

Chorus:

Well it's fire, fire, fire in the sky
Fire, fire, heaven's burning
Fire, fire, fire in the sky
You can't go home no more

Well if I've lived a year
Then I've lived sixty-six
I've lived them mostly here
Where you see that pile of bricks

I'll tell you what I've seen
And I'll tell you what I've learned
There ain't a thing more mean
Than a home that's been robbed and burned

It's midnight over head and it's midnight all around still the trees glow red and it ain't the lights from town

Chorus

Repeat
